

At the open house, the community was asked to vote on the type of character that best represented their vision for the new park.

Design Workshop member, Derek McCall, leads a discussion on the environmental protection anticipated for Cypress Creek and Blue Hole.

Design Workshop Principal, Steven Spears, leads a group through the open house process to discuss the two park concept alternatives.

Design Workshop team member, Chris Dropinski of GreenPlay, discusses alternatives for park operations and maintenance.

